IMPORTANT TO MINERS.

Nobel, of Hamburg, Germany, the inventor of the new blasting compound known as nitro-glycerine, a jar of which caused such a fearful explosion in New York City, several weeks since, has written a letter to this country in which he gives certain facts concerning the article, that have a public interest. This oil or composition will not explode upon simple contact with fire, as powder or gun-cotton will, and therefore Mr. Nobel is puzzled to account for the New York explosion. He has ascertained, however, that organic textures, charred by the action of sulphuric acid, will ignite nitro-glycerine, and thinks this fact may give a clue to the accident. If a lighted match or a rod of red-hot iron is brought in contact with the liquid it is set on fire, but only burns like any other oil; but if it is heated to 350 degrees (on Fahrenheit's scale, 175 presume) then it explodes with great violence. In Sweden this compound is almost exclusively used for blasting purposes, because it leaves no smoke, is less dangerous than gunpowder, and is vastly more effective. As these qualities will doubtless bring it into use in our progressive country, where so much mining is carried on, we think it best to lay before the public the advantages and dangers in the use of the article.

To KEEP SAUSAGE MEAT—Prepare it in small, round cakes; fry them as for the table; pack them closely in an earthen jar; pour the fat from frying over them, and put a weight on them to keep them down until cold; then remove the weight, and cover the top over with lard. Keep them in a cool, dry place.

To MAKE BOOTS WATERPROOF—and impervious of each two ounces; boiled, linned oil, one pint. Apply to the boots with the hand, before the fire, till well saturated.

ALL SORTS OF ITEMS.

Just as the bee collects her sweets,
From every shrub and flower she meets,
What from many a source we draw
Is the honey of life and love.

THE COMING STATE.

See Idaho, the rising western star,
The Mountain State, come flashing on the sight,
So pure, serene, unharmed by scorching war,
Relieving gloom with local light!
The future of Idaho, how gloriously she moves on!
Each day new laurels adding to her beauty,
The miner's shaft is scarcely sunk before
He hears the availing ring, and sees the glow!
Is this the land of the future?
Yes, indeed, she has the future all
That bid, since time began, this wealth from view,
And rivers now are whittled by their fall;
And canons, tunneled by their flows strong,
And valleys brightened to the sickle's gleam,
And hills are sounding to the herder's song,
Where three years back the red man ruled supreme.

COVER YOUR POTATOES.—Potatoes put in the cellar for winter use, housekeepers should remember will not keep well if exposed to the light. They should be placed in a bin and well covered with straw; or we have found barrels to be excellent, with the tops completely closed against the light by old carpets, etc.

BEST METHOD OF KEEPING BEEF.—Cut up the meat in pieces as large as you desire; pack it in a barrel or cask; then make a brine as follows: 1 1/2 pounds salt to 4 gallons of water; one ounce saltpetre to 100 pounds of beef; 1 tablespoonful of ground pepper to 100 pounds of beef. Put in salt and saltpetre and heat it boiling hot, skim it, and then add the pepper.

Joah Billings' Elements of Mora Philosophy.

We are apt to hate them who won't take our advice, and despise them who do.

It is dreadful easy to be a fool—a man can be one and not know it.

Elegant lezzur—chewing plug tobacco and spitting it in a dog's eye.

Nobody but a phool gets bit twice by the same dog.

A pet lam alus makes a cross ram.

Epitafs are like circus bills—there is more in the bills than ever performed.

IMPORTANCE OF PUNCTUATION.—Wanted—A young man to take charge of a pair of horses of a religious turn of mind. A shool committee man writes: We have a shool house large enough to accommodate four hundred pupils four stories high. A newspaper says: A child was run over by a wagon three years old and cross-eyed with pantalets which never spoke afterwards. Parasol—A protection against the sun, used by ladies made of cotton and whalebone. Straps—Articles worn under the boots of gentlemen made of calf skin. An exchange describing a celebration, says: The procession was very fine and nearly two miles in length as was also the prayer of Mr. Perry, the Chaplain.
